

BEAKS, GAELS IN THIRD CONTEST TOMORROW

TROJANS ENTER TITLE RACE SATURDAY

By TOM FOUDEY
Unsuccessful in four consecutive starts, St. Mary's College Gaels will make another effort to capture their first intercollegiate game tomorrow at Edwards field in Berkeley.

GAMES THIS WEEK

St. Mary's at California, Tuesday.
St. Mary's at Stanford, Saturday.
California at U. S. C., Saturday.

California Saturday with Stanford meeting St. Mary's on the same day.

The Bears will go South for the U. S. C. encounter which is the first of a series of three games between the two teams that will keep the Californians quartered in Los Angeles for four days, the remaining games being played next Monday and Tuesday after a Sunday rest-over.

At Palo Alto Saturday the Gaels and Cards will renew their diamond hostilities for the third time, two previous instances having been decided favorably for a Stanford point of view.

A win for California tomorrow would give the Bears undisputed supremacy over their Moraga rivals for another year. The Gaels have very little chance of overthrowing the Berkeley baseball regime as that calls for victories in all three of the remaining games, but are intent on temporarily interrupting it by winning at least one of them.

Negro League to Start Ball Season

Officials of the Berkeley Negro Baseball League plan another grand opening, when the circuit starts its seventh season at San Pablo Park, April 1. In a benefit League game March 25, the Berkeley All-Stars will meet the Sacramento Giants on the College City diamond.

Ruth Starts Practice at Yanks Camp

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 12.—(AP)—Babe Ruth will begin active preparations today for his twenty-first and probably last season in the majors. He expected to join in the first workout of the Yankee's entire squad.

The great Bambino is a little heavy, and he will be watched closely to see how the old batting eye is working, whether he is creaky in the joints when running to first, and whether he has slowed up too much for regular outfield work.

AMBITIOUS OAK ROOKIES LOSE

He rested on the grass for a few minutes and then went in to pitch.

Not since "Shucks" Frutt was with the Oaks, has a southpaw shown as much stuff in an Oak Camp. Fans in the stands roared as the little fellow made the batters look foolish. He walked one Oak and then made him look foolish by picking him off first base.

Devinenzi gave him an autographed baseball after the game and he took it back to the Indian reservation at Finley as a memento of what may be his first year in professional ball as this boy, if he takes on right, is likely to become a star.

Two games are scheduled in camp next week-end. The Oaks will play the Napa All Stars, managed by Andy Daglia, next Saturday. Sunday they play the Langendorf Royals, champions of the Berkeley City League. This Indian boy would like to get another shot at the Oaks and arrangements may be made for him to pitch part of the game for the Bakers. The Oaks will be divided into two squads Saturday, one playing here and the other at Crockett, with the C. and H. Sugar Refiners providing the opposition at the latter town.

Medal Bowling Rules Listed

handicap. Handicaps will be granted on a scratch basis of 205, two-thirds of the difference of the average being used.

6—The Grand Championship Gold Medal winner relinquishes his claim to the class medal, which will go to the runner-up in the class in case of a tie between runners-up.

7—The prize money accruing from the entry fee will be distributed on a basis of 40 per cent to the Grand Championship winner, 25 per cent to the first runner-up, and 25 per cent to the second runner-up. Ties will be rolled off in a 12-name series, four games at each house except eight alleys.

8—No more than 50 per cent of the field will be eliminated in each round at each house. Elimination will be based on total pins.

9—Semi-final round shall consist of four bowlers in each class and the winner of each class to represent that house in the class final.

10—In case the same man wins in two or more houses, or classes, he must represent the house or class in which he rolled the highest number of pins in the semi-final round. The two runners-up in the remaining house or houses shall roll two series of four games, the winner to represent the other house or houses.

11—All rounds shall consist of four games on four alleys, except the final round and the Grand Championship roll-off. No squad shall consist of less than four men, and no more than one pace bowler to a squad.

12—The final round, comprising five class winners from each of the three houses, will be four games across eight alleys in each of the three houses. Schedule to be determined later by The Tribune tournament committee.

13—The Grand Championship for The Tribune Gold Medal shall be bowled between the five class champions in a series of four games across eight alleys at each establishment. This shall be at handicap as per Rule 5.

14—First round competition will be concluded by, and including April 1. Dates for ensuing rounds will be published in The Tribune.

15—The Tribune will publish the full results of the various rounds as they are played. These will be posted in all alleys. Contestants will NOT be notified individually.

PIEDMONT HIGH IN PENTATHLON 100 PER CENT

By BUD SPENCER
Piedmont goes 100 per cent for the Junior Pentathlon. There's dash and verve circulating among the 300 youngsters entered in the five-event competition from Piedmont Junior and Senior High Schools.

The youngsters on the "hilltop" are to be considered one of the strongest units in the competition. Sam Meyer, who used to scamper at left end for Franklin and Marshall as well as trot a sprightly quartermile, is chairman of Piedmont district. Meyer's able assistant is...

CHAMP BEATEN IN S. F. TOURNAY

By BILL TOBITT
Elimination of a former champion and some spectacular scoring featured the second round of competition for the San Francisco City Golf championship at Harding Park yesterday. Dr. Jack Wolf, one-time holder of the crown, incurred 11, 4 and 3 setbacks at the hands of Dick Hoag, young Crystal Springs Country Club member.

Hoag was three under par when the match finished on the eighteenth, being one under and one up at the turn. Three birdies, on the sixth, twelfth and fifteenth and a dozen pars contributed to his win.

Roy Wiggins, Berkeley city champion and the Oak Knoll Golf Club's only hope for laurels, became the Eastbay's lone representative through his 3 and 2 victory over W. D. "Bill" Higgins. Frank Russ of Alameda lost to Paul Tullius, last year's medalist, by a 4 and 3 margin, and August "Slim" Dreier of St. Mary's College was defeated 6 and 4 by Bob Thompson of Stanford.

Midweek Meets Del Monte Team In Polo Final

DEL MONTE, March 12.—(UP)—Pacific Coast polo stars rested today in preparation for tomorrow's final match, between the Del Monte and the Midweek fours, in the Coast Senior Polo Championships. The Del Monte riders qualified for the final yesterday by defeating Castro Valley, 10-9.

The lead in the closely fought contest sawed through seven chinkers with the Del Monte Club, led by Eric Traylor-Martin, putting over the deciding marker in the eighth period. Martin had six goals, Baron von Romberg three, Bullcock one and Reginald Sinclair was scoreless for the winning side. Lin Howard scored five, and Charley Howard, Jr., and Willie Tevis had two each for Castro Valley. Frank Fuller was scoreless.

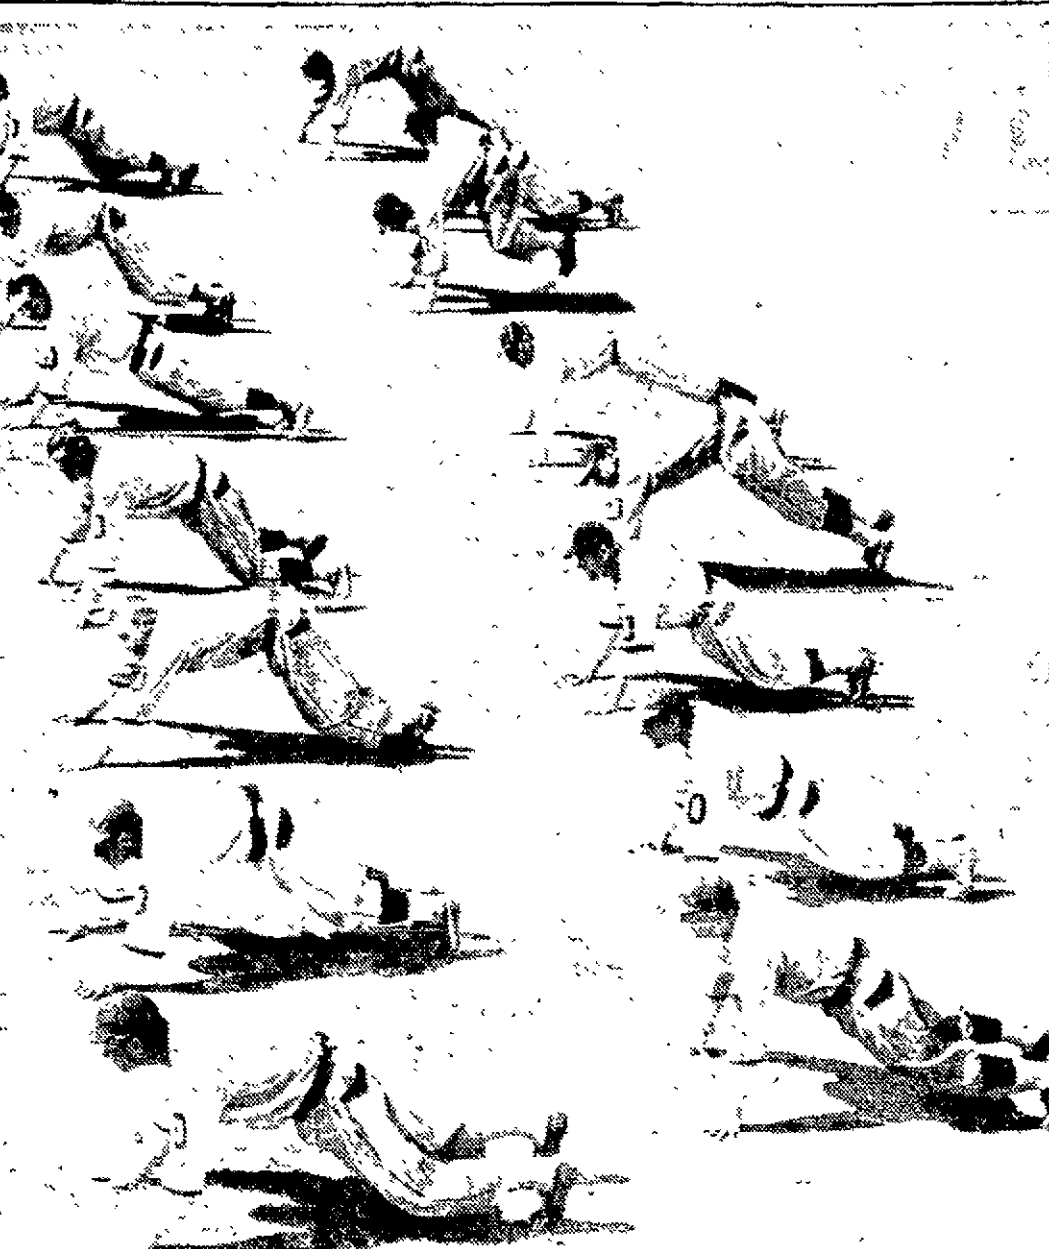

Jones, Former Major Player, Near Death

PORTLAND, Ore., March 12.—(UP)—The condition of Fielder A. Jones, former major league manager and player, was pronounced "very grave" today at Good Samaritan Hospital, where he is suffering from pericarditis.

Negro Quintets to Stage Title Game

Oakland will be the scene of the first annual Negro Y. M. C. A. state championship basketball game, when the Los Angeles 28th Street Branch quintet travels north to face the Oakland Filbert Branch at the State Armory, Saturday. In the curtain raiser, Sacramento and San Mateo Negro quintets clash.

IRONING OUT THE MUSCLE KINKS

Playing baseball is lots of fun, but the members of the Oakland team training near Calistoga find plenty of hard work lined up for them as well. Here's a shot of a daily occurrence in camp—stiff setting-up exercises under the watchful eye of the trainer—to fit the athletes for the coming season.

JOHN SWETT IN PLAYGROUND LOOP LEAD

The Oakland Playground Athletic League is in its fifth week of play at the local high school gymnasium. John Swett is in first place in Division A, with Highland, Melrose and Alameda all tied for second place. Swett looks to be the favored team in this division, but has been pressed to win the last two games. Vincent La Conde of the Highland quintet is high point man with 24 points to his credit.

In Division B, the Fruitvale quintet has made a clean sweep of all champions. B. Fox of Franklin has hit the hoop for 27 points, which gives him high point honors.

STRONG COMPETITION

Park Boulevard leads Division C with three victories and one defeat, but will have to play better basketball to take the title in this division, as Mosswood, Lakeview and Fruitvale are all strong outfits. B. Swenson of Park Boulevard has 33 points, which gives him a clean slate to high point honors.

Durant has also made a clean sweep in Division D with all victories and no defeats, although Mosswood and Bushrod are running a close second. The Mosswood-Durant game will probably decide the championship in this division. McLeod of Mosswood is high point man with 21 points.

Division E is led by Lazer, but Crocker Highland, Rock Ridge and De Fremery are within fighting distance and may overtake Lazer. H. Haskill of De Fremery is credited with 28 points, which gives him high point honors.

SCHEDULE LISTED

Games this week are:
Thursday, at Westside—6-45, Mosswood vs. Longfellow; 8-00, Lakeview vs. Fruitvale; 9-15, Park Boulevard vs. Jefferson; 10-30, De Fremery vs. Emerson; 11-45, University; 8:00, Bushrod vs. Laurel; 9-15, Mosswood vs. Bret Harle; 10-30, De Fremery vs. Highland; 11-45, Webster vs. Fremont; 9-15, Alameda vs. Sherman.

Gallant Sir Is Caliente Loser
AGUA CALIENTE, Mex., March 12.—(UP)—Gallant Sir, outstanding favorite in the $25,000 Agua Caliente handicap next Sunday, fell far below expectations yesterday when he was beaten by J. D. Mikel's Gallard in the Golden West handicap. The Norman B. Church entry finished out of the money, coming in fourth. A rank outsider, Gallard led all the way and finished a length ahead of Orush. Bonnie Grafton was third. Gallard paid $18.00 on a $2 ticket. His time for the mile and 70-yard sprint was 1:43, or three-tenths of a second slower than the track record.

Avon Hurler Off For Newark Camp
MARTINEZ, March 12.—Signed by the New York Yankees, but farmed for seasoning to Newark of the International League, Joe Olsen, pitching ace of last year's Associated Press team, was called up for the Bears' training camp at Clearwater, Fla. Olsen's mound work gave the A's victories over the Stockton and East Bay Bottle Supply teams in The Tribune's Northern California Baseball Managers' Association tournament in Oakland last year.

THE NEUTRAL CORNER
BY ALAN WARD

IT'S easy to understand why Barney Ross is one of the most popular chaps in boxing. Not alone is he a great little fighter, but he is as thorough a young gentleman as has hit this coast-line in many a day. Soft-spoken, gracious, self-effacing and clean-living, Ross makes friends wherever he goes. He has been in the Bay region less than three weeks and already is a pugilistic idol.

Fighters such as Ross do the boxing sport an uncalculable good. They elevate the pastime and even the most vigorous opponent of the ring game would be forced to change a pre-conceived opinion after talking to such a pleasant lad as Ross.

Young Corbett and Jimmy Mc-

Carthy as Barney. To the list can be added Max Baer, Jack Dempsey, Gene Tunney, Billy Wallace and many more.

Probably few realize the demands, and many of them unfair demands, on the time and talents of outstanding boxers, and we often wonder how dispositions stand up under the barrage. Hundreds of persons want autographs, clubs, lodges and other organizations seek personal appearances. Friends always have friends looking for introductions. And then there are radio broadcasts, posings for pictures, interviews and what not. Truly, the life of a champion or even a near-champ, isn't all sunshine.

Ross neither smokes nor drinks. He gets to bed no later than 10 o'clock every night. No matter what the occasion, he will depart about 9:30 in order to hit the bay at the scheduled hour. In fact, for so long a period has he followed the 10 o'clock program that it would be a real effort to keep awake after that time.

BOXING and wrestling will feature the athletic smoker of Captain Bill Erwin Post No. 537 of the American Legion at the Oakland Veterans' Memorial Building tomorrow night. Guy Turner, superintendent of the Oakland Airport, will be chairman of the evening. Guests of honor will include Army aviators at Oakland airport, Army and Navy reserve fliers, and members of the Floyd Bennett Aviation Post of San Francisco.

Among the boxers on the program will be "Babe" McCurdy, Art McQuillan, "Gunner" and Willie Troines, "Dutch" Lawrence and Conrad Waincoate. Frank Hammer, local light heavyweight sensation, will referee. Dr. O. V. Robinson is furnishing the majority of the fighters, while the M. C. A. mat team, under the direction of Herb Ferguson, also will perform.

BEN WONG, plugging little Chinese boxer of Oakland, will headline the Duffy Gimmassum smoker tonight, his opponent to be selected later in the day. Other fighters signed are "Babe" Herman, George Archer, Dan Birelow, Kayo James, Willie Bordell and "Kiki" Cola. Wrestling and vaudeville numbers will be added. Jimmy Duffy is match-maker and Eddie Dalton will be master-of-ceremonies.

Champions MAKING TRAINING HINTS FOR JUNIOR PENTATHLON

By BUD SPENCER
Former World Champion

Dink Templeton, who started a revolution in shot-putting form with his coaching, looked over Tiny Hartman's movements across the circle and decided they were "terrible." And they were, judging from the changes made with sweeping results.

"There are two things you must learn about shot-putting if you are going to get any where," Templeton told Hartman, who was then a novice at tossing the iron ball. "First is to keep your weight behind the throw, after coming across the circle. As you hop across the circle you must land particularly on your right leg, knees bent, and from there you get your drive."

"Second you must keep your elbow and wrist driving in a direct trajectory with the flight of the ball. In that way your drive is straight ahead."

Those were the chief things Templeton told Hartman at that moment. They were the essentials of shot-putting. Other finer points of championship form come later, but a beginner must master these details before attempting to learn the more advanced particulars.

How does a right-handed pitcher deliver a ball? He pitches with the weight on his right leg and as his right hand delivers the ball his weight shifts forward, behind the delivery, however, to the left foot. Try it. In that simple movement of the foot, there is one of the first principles of shot-putting.

FORMULA FOR POWER
To make things easy in pitching that movement is a natural result. In shot-putting where the ball is heavier there must be more specific details and more complicated ones. But the principle of both is the same. As a big man comes behind the delivery that gives power in shot-putting and makes pitching easier.

But if the "weight-behind-put" movement is the most essential part of shot-putting then it is a coach to be sure. The most glaring fault seen among novice weight throwers, other than improper arm movement, is that of taking the hop across the circle and landing with the weight too far forward.

(Tomorrow: "How to hop across the circle.")
