240 or more. Once before the plan was put into effect, and while a spectator was apt to become dizzy trying to follow the action, it did have the saving grace of sending him home at a reasonable hour. Those in charge of the pending tournaments believe 70 contests can be reeled off the opening night with the show ending no later than 11:30 o'clock. In the past some of the programs have run until 12:30 or later. It's especially tough on sports scribes who have to return to their offices and pound out stories.

FTER matching a few hun-A dred fighters, for better or worse, Emil De Julio, who answers to the nickname "Dee," has decided on a more personal pairing. Promoter Ora Forman's matchmaker will enter the realm of benedicts June 9, Miss Norma Clifford of this city having signed articles. A formal wedding is planned, after which a reception will be tendered friends and anquaintances at the Lakeside Gymasium, the latter locale chosen to impart a novel tone to the proceedings. Later the couple will leave on a week's honeymoon to a destination unknown.

Always dependable, these wrestlers. Approached on participation in The Tribune sports department's athletic show for residents of the U. S. Government Hospital at livermore Sunday, May 26, they offered services of the entire troupe. It would be swell to use a lot of the big fellows, but we finally had to compromise on two bouts.

Jos Malcewicz, "The Utica Panther," and "Rebet" Russell, blond firebrand from the East, will take part in one of the contests. The other will be arranged later. Jim Browning, former champion, may be a principal if his traveling schedule brings him to the Eastbay about that time. At any rate, the contest yet to be compiled will be a good one.

"Dee" De Julio, general chairman of arrangements, and Jack Buckley, director of boxing bouts, reported today they are receiving more volun-tary show entries than can be used.

" HICK" DELANEY, San Leandro featherweight southpaw who recently parted company with his manager, Pat Sylvester, will box Joe Thomas in the main event of Duffy's Gymnasium show tomorrow night. Delaney is angling Braves Outslug for a local Auditorium shot with Jo Tel Ken. Other matches on the gym card follow: George Sange vs. Eimer Miles, Hugh Wedge vs. Al Worth and Art McQuillan vs "Tar-san" Britton. Two wrestling tilts are slated. Louie Petchenik will be master of ceremonies.
