NOLAN WORKS 49ERS HARD FOR SCRUM

SANTA BARBARA (AP) -San Francisco 49er coach Dick Nolan put his rookies and free agents through a series of offensive running plays yesterday in preparation for today's full scrimmage.

Nolan singled out running backs Sammy Johnson of North Carolina and Don Johnson of Missouri for their performance in practice. He also praised Missouri guard Jim Schneitz.

Running back Wilbur Jackson, the 49ers first-round draft pick this year, had the east removed from his left ankle and trainer Chuck Karnata said he should be able to play within a week. Jackson spraied the ankle during the Coaches Al-America game last month in Lubbock, Tex.

The 21-year-old Arlington. Tex., blonde may be a licensed second in Texas and Florida, but she won't be able to do the job in California, says Assistant Chief Inspector Art McQuillan of the State Athletic Commission.

"She can get a second's license, but she won't be able to get into the ring (as do all seconds for between-rounds advice) or into her husband's dressing room," McQullan said yesterday.

He quoted Robert L. Turley, the commission's chief executive officer, as the source of Mrs. Von Hatten's ban.

"Turley said no," McQuillan declared adding, "because she's a woman, I guess," when asked the reason behind the rule interpreta-

"A representative of the attorney general's office told the commission then they had no authority to stop her - and they can't stop this Von Hatten gal, either."

McQuillan, clearly caught in the middle, said he expects to issue a $10 second's license Monday, on the eve of Tom Von Hatten's bout with Kim Booker, if she applies.

"I'll probably take it up with the office in Sacramento," McQuillan said, indicating the final word will have to come from his boss, Turley.
